

From a classical line to a page of writing

A reading-and-writing session your group can actually use.

FOR EXPERIENCED ADULT-GROUP FACILITATORS

For independent organizers who already run paid, English-language adult reading or writing events. You lead the session; we prepare a clearly sourced, adaptable 45-60 minute materials kit for an agreed event.

ONE FOCUSED KIT

- A timed facilitator guide with prompts and optional sharing steps.
- 8-10 editable slides and two printable participant worksheets.
- A source-and-use sheet separating classical text, studio translation and new examples.
- One consolidated revision within the agreed theme and event scope.

US$149 / ONE AGREED WORKSHOP THEME

Pilot price for the first three paid clients; not a claimed discount. No subscription. Event fit, final scope, delivery date, permission to use the materials, cancellation/refund terms and an available payment method must be agreed before an order or payment request.

WHAT THIS IS - AND IS NOT

New studio-created materials for one purchasing organization to use in its own events. No resale or public distribution of our source files; no exclusive rights claimed over classical texts. Not live facilitation, audience recruitment, therapy or a promise of event revenue. Existing paid book chapters are not included.

SEE THE TWO-PAGE SAMPLE. TELL US ABOUT YOUR NEXT EVENT.

Reply with your event date, adult audience, format and the part of preparation you need help with. No participant names, personal journals or payment details are needed. We will confirm fit before discussing an order.
